

“Be Built Up”
A Study through 1 Corinthians for Kids!

Lesson 5	Scripture to Read: 1 Corinthians 4:1-5
Questions to discuss with Kids	1. Paul was a servant of God given the job to reveal the mystery of the Gospel- Jesus Christ! What is a qualification to be a servant for God? Check out verse 2! 2. Who judges us? Look at verse 4. If God judges us, do we have the right to judge others? 3. How are hidden things brought to the light? See verse 5.
Craft Idea Items Needed: *Construction paper *Sharpie *Glue sticks *Couple pieces of art tissue paper	Reveal the Heart Craft!- God’s light reveals what is in our hearts. The kids will make a beautiful heart craft to remind them to ask God to search their hearts. First use the sharpie to outline a heart on construction paper. Next have the kids cut the tissue paper into small squares. Kids can glue the squares onto the heart. Write at the bottom of the paper, “...and reveal the counsels of the hearts...” 1 Cor. 4:5b
Game Idea Items Needed: *Object to hide	Hidden things will be brought to the light! Game- This is a game of ‘Hide and Seek. Hide an object in the room. Lower the lights (for safety reasons, don’t turn off all the lights). On ‘Go’ have the kids find the object. Once the object is found, play again! But this time turn all the lights on. Have the kids find the object. Share with the kids that the light helps bring out the hidden things in the darkness!

Got extra time? Here’s an idea—Play a game of Hot Potato with that object you were hiding!
